

Michael Tangonan

Legal Counsel, Superannuation and Investments,

AMP Australia

Michael is an award-winning in-house lawyer and is a Lawyers Weekly 30 under 30 and FS Sustainability ESG Power50 winner. For his day job, he is a Legal Counsel in the Superannuation & Investments Legal team at AMP and is a trusted adviser for AMP's superannuation business. He is also the go-to lawyer for all things ESG and Sustainability across the organisation. He is also a casual academic at the Faculty of Law & Justice at UNSW teaching corporate governance.

A cultural diversity advocate, Michael recently served as a Chair of AMP's Inclusion and Diversity Council and outside of his day job, is the Vice-President of the NSW Branch of the Asian Australian Lawyers Association. He also volunteers as a Sustainability Officer with the National Environmental Law Association and is a member of the Corporate In-House Lawyers and Ethics Committees at the Law Society of NSW.
