

Samantha Lee

Supervising Solicitor, Redfern Legal Centre

Samantha Lee is a supervising solicitor at Redfern Legal Centre (RLC), where she leads the police accountability and administrative law practice. She has played a key role in several law reform campaigns and strategic litigation cases, including those related to COVID fines, strip search laws, and issues concerning children and fines. Prior to her current position, Samantha worked for many years as a lawyer at Legal Aid NSW and served as a policy advisor within the Criminal Law Division at the NSW Attorney-General's office.
