

APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION 2026/27 UNDERTAKING BY A SOLICITOR ENGAGING IN LEGAL PRACTICE AS A PRINCIPAL AT A COMMUNITY LEGAL SERVICE

THIS IS AN UNDERTAKING TO ACCOMPANY AN APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION FROM THE REQUIREMENT TO HOLD OR BE COVERED BY AN APPROVED INSURANCE POLICY FOR THIS JURISDICTION IN ACCORDANCE WITH CHAPTER 4, PART 4.4 OF THE LEGAL PROFESSION UNIFORM LAW (NSW).

This form is to be completed by a solicitor who has been appointed by the community legal service as a supervising legal practitioner and who has applied for a principal of a law practice practising certificate.

1. UNDERTAKING

undertake to limit the scope of legal services provided by me to that of exclusively engaging in legal practice as a supervising legal practitioner of and only to practise as a solicitor for that community legal service. I agree for this undertaking to be recorded as a discretionary condition imposed on my 2026/27 practising certificate.

In consideration of the above undertaking, I request that I be granted an exemption, pursuant to the legal profession legislation, from the requirement to hold or be covered by an approved insurance policy.

I acknowledge and understand that any exemption I may be granted will expire on the date on which I commence to practise as a principal otherwise than in accordance with the above undertaking, and should this happen I must immediately ensure that I hold or am covered by an approved professional indemnity insurance policy to engage in that manner of legal practice in this jurisdiction.

PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTION NOTICE

By completing this form you are providing personal information to The Law Society of New South Wales (we, us, or our).

By lodging this application, you confirm that you have read the Personal Information Collection Notice and that you consent to The Law Society of New South Wales' collection, use and disclosure of information in accordance with that Notice. If you have any questions regarding the Personal Information Collection Notice please contact our Privacy Officer using the contact details below, prior to lodging this application.

Who do we collect the personal information from?

We generally collect your personal information directly from you. However, in some cases, we may receive your personal information from a third party (for instance if we receive a complaint) and when it is relevant to our statutory responsibilities (for instance other regulators who have dealt with you).

What are the purposes for which we collect and hold personal information?

We collect and hold your personal information to:

- fulfil our functions under, facilitate compliance with, and carry out our responsibilities in connection with, the Legal Profession Act 2004 (NSW), the legal profession legislation (as defined in the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014), the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW) and associated regulations (which require and authorise us to collect certain information) including to maintain regulatory and corporate records;
- fulfil our role as a professional association including:
 - maintaining membership records
 - communicating with you to offer products, services and events and when you obtain a product or service or come to an event
 - to conduct research and provide public representation; and
- provide information to third parties as authorised or required by law.

What if we didn't collect this personal information?

Without your personal information we may not be able to process your application or request, perform our statutory functions or provide you with some or all of the services of the Law Society as a professional association.

Who are the types of bodies and persons to whom we usually disclose your personal information?

Your personal information may be provided to:

- entities distributing information relevant to you as a legal practitioner or member of the Law Society;
- Lawcover and other professional indemnity insurers and practising certificate funders;
- our professional advisors and contractors (strictly on the basis that the information is to be used only for providing services to the Law Society and must not be disclosed);
- Australian regulators and government entities (such as the Office of the Legal Services Commissioner) and overseas regulators; and
- organisations that represent the legal profession such as the Law Council of Australia and Regional Law Societies.

Disclosure overseas

If you practise in a foreign country (or apply to do so) we may send your personal information overseas in response to an inquiry from the relevant authority in that place.

We use the services of certain third party service providers which may have offices or other operations outside of Australia. As a result, your personal information may be disclosed to overseas recipients. All service providers that have access to personal information held by us are required to keep the information confidential and not to make use of it for any purpose other than to provide services in accordance with their engagement.

You can access and correct your personal information

Our privacy policy contains information about how you may access your personal information and seek correction of such information; as well as how to complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how we will deal with such a complaint. Our privacy policy is accessible via lawsociety.com.au/privacy-policy
